

Joseph R. Modugno Memorial Scholarship

Joseph was born during the Depression and was the devoted son of Italian immigrants. He had determination and faith in himself, and with the assistance of the teachers and his football coach at LEHS, he received the opportunity of a lifetime. He was accepted to Brewster Academy and then to the University of Connecticut on football scholarships.

This annual scholarship of $1000 will be awarded to one male student athlete and one female student athlete in his memory.

Criteria for eligibility:

- Senior graduating from Lynn English High School planning to attend a four-year college or university
- Minimum GPA 3.0
- Varsity team member
- Completed application, including a copy of transcript and 2 recommendations, (one must be from your coach.)
- Application deadline April 30, 2017

Please turn all applications packets to the guidance office.
