About LCpl Bradley Campus

Bradley J. Campus was born in Lynn, MA on February 15, 1962. He attended Lynn English High School, and upon graduation, he joined the U.S. Marine Corps. While stationed overseas, he was thinking about the next stage of his life, and goals he had. Bradley desired to open his own bakery in the North End of Boston after serving in the military.

Unfortunately, his dreams never came true, because on 23 October 1983 Bradley was killed in the Beirut bombing by two (2) suicide bombers who drove a truck into the Marine Barracks. Lance Corporal Bradley Campus was one (1) of 241 American service members that were killed on that day.

Bradley was known as a person who possessed the qualities of kindness, integrity, dedication, dependability, loyalty, sincerity, seriousness, humor, independence, and was an overall intelligent young man.

We are called to honor our veterans, and the Committee is honored to be able to offer this scholarship in his name.
